

The Lexington School Student Dress Requirements

GRADES 1-8 MONDAY - THURSDAY DRESS CODE:

Students in Grades 1-8 wear chino-style pants or mid-thigh length or longer skirts or shorts of chino material. Pants, skirts, or shorts must be solid khaki, navy blue, gray, or black, along with any solid-colored collared, button-down, or turtleneck shirt.

Solid-colored fleece, sweaters, crew neck sweatshirts, and jackets may be worn inside the building. A collared shirt must be worn underneath these items if they do not have a collar.

TLS branded sweatshirts or hoodies are also acceptable on Monday - Thursday, but hoods must be kept down while students are inside.

Unless TLS branded, all clothing items should be devoid of pictures or patterns. Leggings must be worn under clothing and cannot be worn alone as pants. Outerwear for recess and carline need not follow the solid-color rule, but jackets or sweaters worn inside the building must be solid-colored.

Any solid-colored, jewel-necked, or collared dress/jumper is acceptable.. Belts must be worn if belt loops are visible. Straight hemmed shirts such as polos or blouses may be worn outside of the waistband but must be appropriately sized. All button-down shirts or those with long shirttails must be tucked in.

GRADES 1 - 8 FRIDAY UNIFORM DRESS:

Students in Grades 1-8 participate in TLS Friday Dress. The dress uniform is worn every Friday and on other designated days as announced. Students may select from the combinations described below:
